

1 We are committed to providing a high-quality legal service and to dealing with all our clients fairly. We acknowledge that we may not always get it right so if something has gone wrong, including in relation to the bill, we need you to tell us.

How do I make a complaint?

2 You can contact us in writing (by letter, fax or email) or by speaking with our Complaints Partner who is John Humphreys. His e-mail address is jh@charles-coleman.com. If John Humphreys is the person you wish to complain about then please direct your communication to Nathan Kapoor whose e-mail address is nk@charles-coleman.com.

3 To help us to understand your complaint and in order that we do not miss anything, please tell us:

- your full name and contact details
- what you think we have got wrong
- what you hope to achieve as a result of your complaint, and
- your matter reference number (if you have it)

4 If you require any help in making your complaint we will try to help you.

How will you deal with my complaint?

5 We will record your complaint centrally.

6 We will write to you within three working days acknowledging your complaint.

7 We will investigate your complaint. This will usually involve:

- reviewing your complaint
- reviewing your file(s) and other relevant documents, and
- speaking with the person who dealt with your matter

8 We may also need to ask you for further information or documents. If so, we will ask you to provide the information within a specific period of time.

9 We may also, if appropriate, invite you to a meeting to discuss your complaint. You do not have to attend if you do not wish to or if you are unable to. We will be happy to discuss the matter with you on the telephone.

10 We will update you on the progress of your complaint at appropriate times.

11 We will write to you at the end of our investigation to tell you what we have done and what we propose to do to resolve your complaint. We will aim to do this within 15 working days of the date of our letter of acknowledgement.

What if I am not satisfied with the outcome?

12 If you are unhappy with the outcome of our complaints handling procedure, please first let us know and we will review the matter.

13 If you are still unhappy you can ask the Legal Ombudsman to look into your complaint. You can contact the Legal Ombudsman:

- by post at PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton, WV1 9WJ
- by telephone: 0300 555 0333 (UK) or +44 121 245 3050 (Overseas)
- by email: enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk

14 You must usually refer your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within six months of our final written response to your complaint. Further details are available on the website: www.legalombudsman.org.uk.

15 Alternative complaints bodies such as ProMediate, Ombudsman Services and Small Claims Mediation exist which are competent to deal with complaints about legal services should both you and our firm wish to use such a scheme.

What will it cost?

16 We will not charge you for handling your complaint.

17 Please note that if we have issued a bill for work done on the matter, and all or some of the bill is not paid, we may be entitled to charge interest on the amount outstanding.

18 The Legal Ombudsman service is free of charge.

19 If it is agreed between us to use an alternative complaints body then it is probable that there will be a charge for their services.

20 The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help you if you are concerned about our behaviour. This is to do with things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money or treating you unfairly because of your age, disability or other characteristics. If you are a small business or consumer you can raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority directly via their website www.sra.org.uk.
